Are Mermaids Real?

👁 34 ✓ 0 ★ 2

Chapter 1 by Story Wars

I am obsessed with mermaids. Ever since I have heard of them I have been interested in them. They may seem like some scaly, old, half-human, half-fish thing, but I think they are something more. Some people say mermaids are real, or that they have seen one, and some people say they are not real. I am not sure whether or not to believe in them, but I know somewhere in me there is still a spark left of believing in mermaids.

So I am going to make up a story about mermaids and some other fantasy stuff. Once upon a time there was a beautiful girl named Skylar. She lived a normal, happy life. One day her parents told her that the family was going on vacation. They were going on a cruise. Soon the time came for the vacation.

After 11 hours in the car and 4 on a plane they finally reached Florida, which was where the cruise was. They checked into their hotel and went to bed for the night.

The next day was the day of the cruise. Skylar couldn't wait. She loaded into the car with her family and they drove off. A few minutes later they reached the deck. Skylar got on excitedly.

About 5 minutes after they had taken off Skylar saw a fish tale flop out of the water. But then a head bobbed out of the water. Skylar thought "is that a mermaid"...
